

Also, the bill, entitled, an act to authorise the improvement of an island therein named; severally endorsed, 'will pass with the proposed amendments,' which amendments were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Also, the resolution relative to the judges of the Orphan's court of Harford county, endorsed, 'assented to', ordered to be engrossed,

Also, the preamble and resolution relative to so much of the act of 1834, as provides for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and for other purposes,

Also, the resolution relative to the poor school fund in Allegany county, severally endorsed, 'assented to with the proposed amendment,' which amendment was read the first and second time by special order, severally assented to, and the resolution ordered to be engrossed.

And, delivered a resolution originated in and passed by the senate; relative to the abolishment of the Lottery system, in the United States;

Which was read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. McLean, laid before the house a preamble and resolution, adopted by both branches of the City Council of Baltimore, asking for an extension of time, for the reception of testimony, and for the summoning of such witnesses as they, together with the counsel for the city, should deem to be necessary in relation to the memorialists of John B. Morris, and others, praying indemnity for losses sustained by the late riots in said city,

Which was read, And,

On motion of Mr. Merrick, laid on the table.

Mr. McLean, then submitted the following order,

Ordered, That the select committee to whom was referred sundry memorials relating to the riots in Baltimore in August last, be instructed to have such testimony as may be adduced on the part of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and that the day of hearing counsel in favor of the memorialists, be postponed until such testimony shall be closed,

Which was read.

Mr. McLean, moved to amend said order, by adding at the end thereof the following

'And that the select committee have leave to sit after the adjournment of the Legislature, if in their opinion it should